Opening Reception in our Nantucket Gallery

Wine & Cheese reception: Friday, April 24, 4:30 – 7:00pm

Contemporary "nature-scapes", animals, atmospheres and Nantucket's very own "fog" — captured by local and regional artists including Joann Ballinger, Eileen Eder, Lisa Horrigan, Stapleton Kearns, David Lussier, Alain Picard, Yasemin Tomakan and numerous others.

Cover painting: Eileen Eder, "Orchid and Lemon", 16 x 16 inches, Oil on Panel

Artist Eileen Eder's work is exhibited widely in New York and Connecticut and represented in important private and corporate collections. Eileen is a painter with a passion for drawing. Rendering her subjects realistically, the objects, people and places that populate her canvases often serve and abstract design sensibility. This makes her work highly accessible, yet emotionally and intellectually complex. Eileen received her B.F.A. from Albertus Magnus College and her M.F.A. from the Graduate School of Figurative Art. She has held teaching positions at the Creative Arts Workshop and Yale Center for British Art in New Haven, CT. She has appeared along with her work in the New York Times, New Haven Register, and Guilford Courier.
