Opening Reception in our Nantucket Gallery

Wine & Cheese reception: Friday, November 27, 4:00 – 7:00 pm

Exhibition includes important historical and contemporary landscape and marine painters who have distinctly captured the essence of the New England shoreline. Artists include Joann Ballinger, George Elmer Browne, Maurice King Burns, William Hanson, Lisa Horrigan, Hayley Lever, David Lussier, Alain Picard, Caleb Arnold Slade, Yasemin Tomakan, Yves Parent and numerous others.

Cover painting:

Yasemin Tomakan, "Racing off Mystic Seaport", 12 x 14 inches, Oil on Canvas

Yasemin Tomakan's professional affiliations include the Lyme Art Association, American Society of Marine Artists (ASMA) and the Rowayton Arts Association. Yasemin attended the Art Students League in New York City at age 11 and continued each summer through high school. She later graduated from Cooper Union with a BA in fine arts.

Yasemin has lived in varied locales such as Ankara, Turkey, Beverly Hills and New York City, and has traveled extensively all over Europe and the Middle East. That broad international exposure influences her work to this day. In recent years, her travels have been closer to home and all by the seaside — with scenes of Nantucket, the Islands of Puerto Rico, the Florida Keys, the California coastline — and at her current home in Old Greenwich, CT.
