

“Nantucket Master Series III: Portraits and Plein Aire”

Alain Picard, David Lussier and others

Exhibition & Sale August 7 – August 29, 2009

Opening Reception in our Nantucket Gallery

Wine and cheese reception: Friday August 7, 2009, 4:30 – 7:30 pm

Featuring new works by various leading American “masters of their mediums” — Alain Picard, David Lussier, Dean Fisher, William Hanson, Yves Parent, Paul Goodnow and others — each depicting contemporary Nantucket and New England street scenes, landscapes and shorelines. All are master craftsman and firmly established contemporary American impressionist artists.

Cover painting: Alain Picard, pastel master

Alain Picard studied at the Art Student’s League in New York City and cites Sargent, Degas, and Sorolla among his artistic influences. A love of light and beauty are immediately apparent in his pastel and oil paintings. Alain’s work has been featured in such publications as The Artist’s Magazine and The Pastel Journal. He has garnered top awards throughout the Northeast in esteemed exhibitions including the Pastel Society of America, Hudson Valley Art Association, the Connecticut Society of Portrait Artists, and the Connecticut Pastel Society where he holds signature member status. In 2004, The Artist’s Magazine highlighted Alain as one of 20 contemporary artists “On the Rise”.
