Cover painting:

Dahl Taylor, "Star Island", 35 x 26 inches, Oil on Canvas

Dahl Taylor's career has spanned nearly 30 years. In that time he has created paintings for projects ranging from Broadway play posters to corporate annual reports, museum installations to official portraits. He has painted canvases for commemorative limited edition prints for national memorials including the U.S. Navy Memorial in Washington, D.C. His work covers a wide variety of subject matter but his deepest interest lies in the coastal/maritime genre. Mr. Taylor's marine art experience includes participation in more than a dozen annual International Marine Art Exhibitions at the Maritime Gallery at Mystic Seaport. He is a recipient of the prestigious Thomas M. Hoyne, III Award from the Maritime Gallery for his painting of Stonington, ME. He participated in a two-man show at the Albany Institute of History and Art in Albany, NY, which documented the construction of a replica of the schooner 'America'. Several of these paintings were featured in the British magazine 'Classic Boat'.
