

"Women Artists on Nantucket Island VI"

Exhibition & Sale July 1 – July 14, 2011

Opening Reception in our Nantucket Gallery

Wine & Cheese reception: Friday, July 1, 2011, 5:00 – 8:00 pm

Leading ladies of Nantucket art including pastel master and teacher Joann Ballinger, competitive sailor and painter Lisa Horrigan, Yasemin Tomakan and others. The exhibition includes landscapes, marine paintings, still lifes and townscapes.

Cover painting:

Yasemin Tomakan, "Marsh Glow", 24 x 36 inches, Oil on Canvas

Yasemin is a graduate of the prestigious Cooper Union with a BA in Fine Arts and Graphic Design. Her professional affiliations include the Lyme Art Association, the American Society for Marine Artists, the Rowayton Art Association and the Old Greenwich Arts Society. In addition, she currently has two paintings that were chosen for a permanent exhibit at the Nantucket Airport Terminal. Her current gallery affiliations include the Geary Gallery in Darien, CT, the Meridian Galleries in Nantucket, MA, Chrysalis Gallery in Southampton, NY and the Annapolis Marine Art Gallery, Annapolis, MD. Her landscape and coastal scenes are based on the local areas she visits but she is always looking for new locales as a new challenge and to provide inspiration for her work. Tomakan paints exclusively in oils. She lives and works in Greenwich, CT.
